PHOTO NEWS RELEASE:

Beyond the Horizon at Houttuin Clinic

080716-A-5202T-031: PARAMARIBO, Suriname -- Pfc. Courtney Sherbrook of Belle Fourche, S.D., member of the 842nd Engineer Company, applies the final touches of paint on Wednesday, July 16, to panels at Houttuin Clinic, near Paramaribo, Suriname. The clinic is one of three current engineer projects South Dakota Soldiers have been working on for Beyond the Horizon 2008. This exercise allows personnel and units to sharpen their occupational skills and practice deployment and redeployment to be better trained and better prepared to respond to future challenges, while bringing lasting benefits to our partner nation and the Suriname people. 080716-A-5202T-038: PARAMARIBO, Suriname -- South Dakota Adjutant General Maj. Gen. Steven R. Doohen speaks with Deputy Chief of Mission Thomas R. Genton (left) at Houttuin Clinic on Wednesday, July 16, as part of his three-day tour in Suriname of South Dakota's involvement in Beyond the Horizon 2008. South Dakota is matched in a State Partnership Program with Suriname. This partnership supports democracy, encourages market economies, promotes regional cooperation and stability, and provides opportunities for Surinamers and Americans to interact with and learn from each other and each others; cultures. This particular visit emphasizes Beyond the Horizon 2008, a humanitarian exercise intended to improve the quality of life for the people of Suriname while at the same time improving partner nation's capability and providing opportunities for U.S. personnel to refine engineering, medical, mobilization, and deployment skills.
